

An emissions-free Europe is possible and will deliver huge opportunities

Renewables and energy efficiency as main drivers of a decarbonized economy

- Mature and available technologies
- Electrification is critical
- Economic viability and opportunities

Clear goals and coherent, predictable policies

- Medium and long-term objectives
- Environmental tax reform
- Adequate electricity market design
- Sectoral roadmaps
- Just transition
- R&D policies
- Green industrial policy

Positive impacts

- 1 | Climate change mitigation
- 2 | Sustainable economic growth
- 3 | Air quality improvement
- 4 | Increase in labour productivity
- 5 | Security and less energy dependence
- 6 | Reduction in household vulnerability
- 7 | Industrial and technological development
- 8 | Green job creation
- 9 | Positive impact on biodiversity