

Installation of smart recharging systems for electric buses

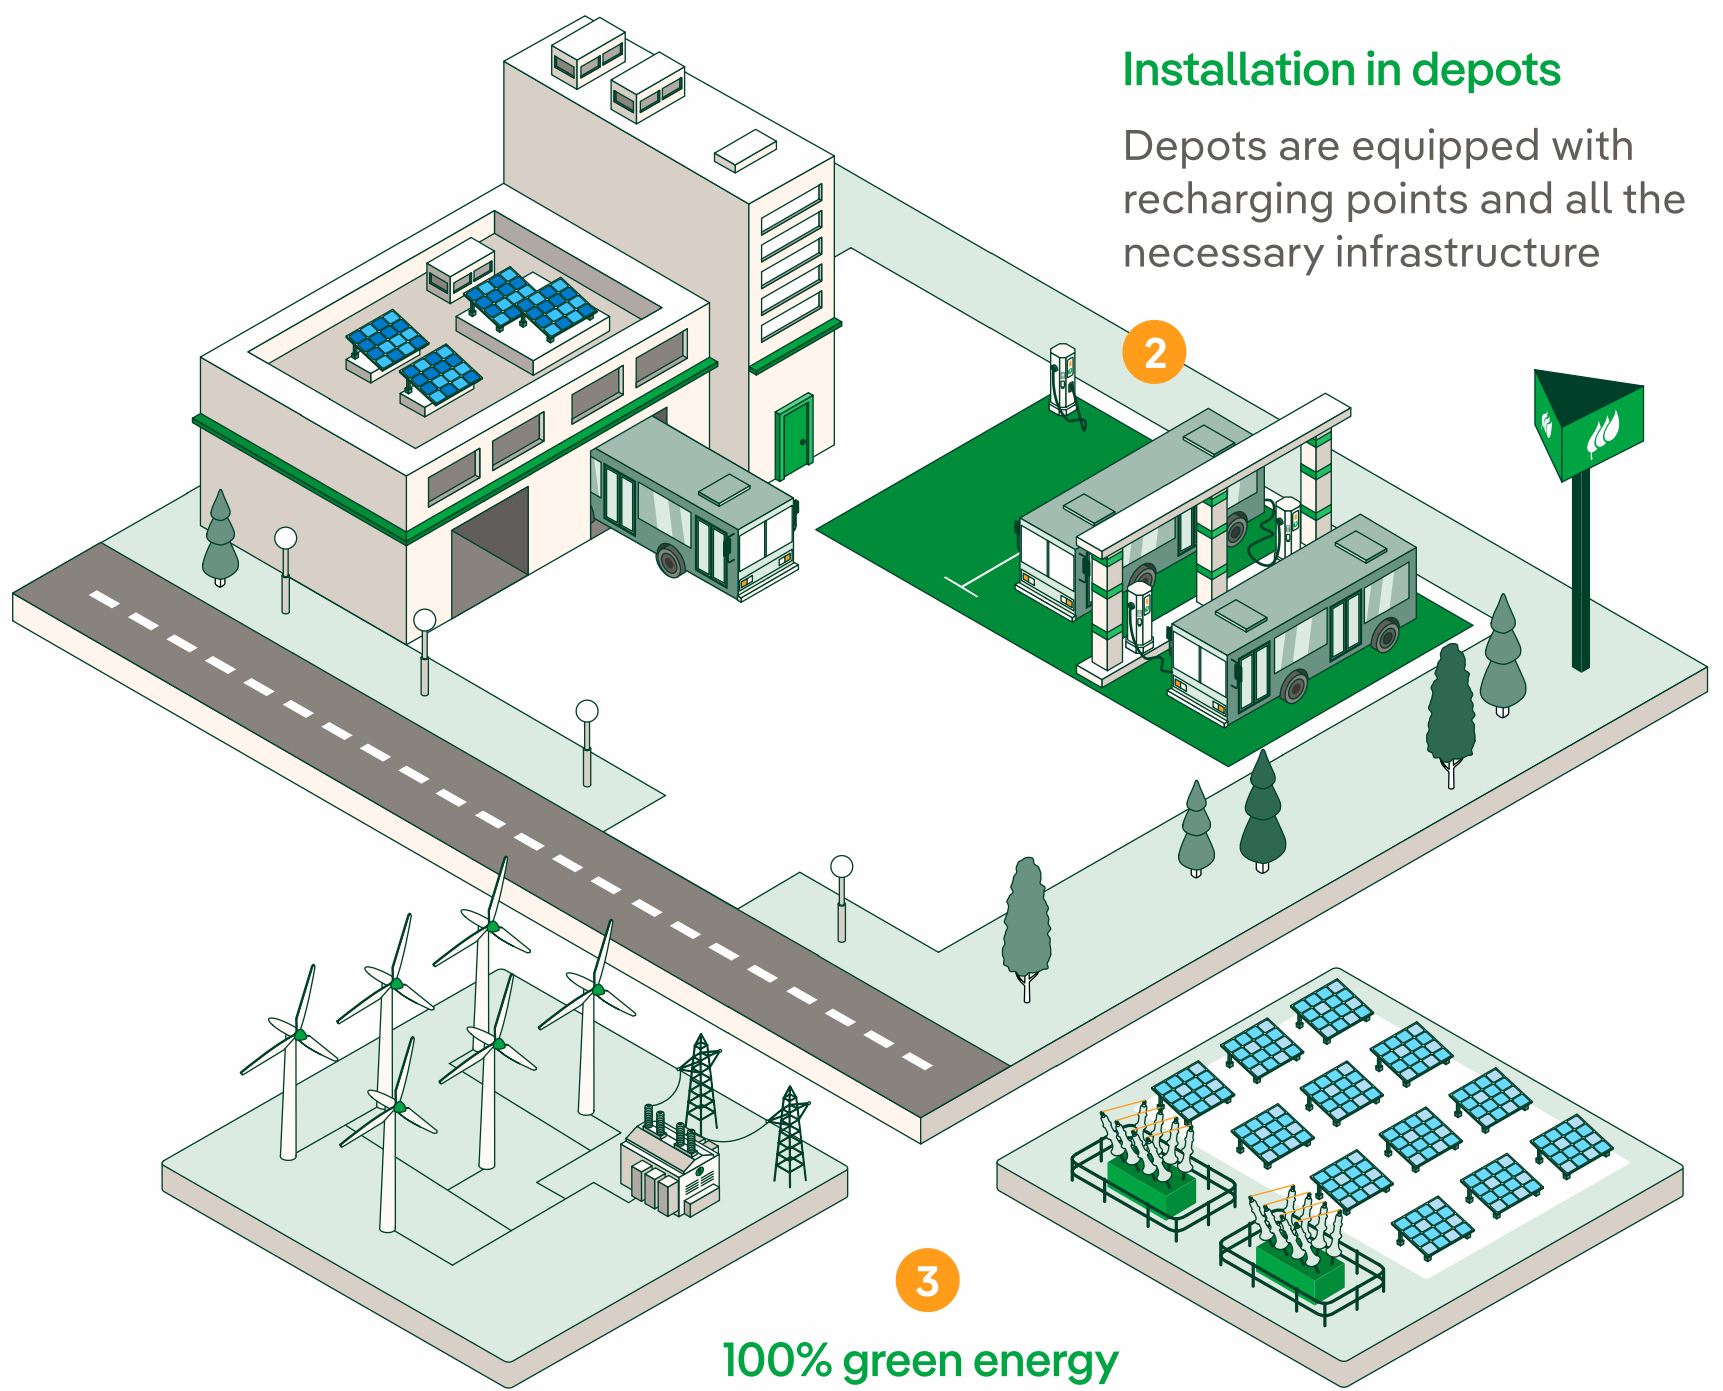

1 Feasibility study

Before kicking off the project, we have to check that the site is suitable for the installations

Installation in depots

Depots are equipped with recharging points and all the necessary infrastructure

100% green energy

Electricity is generated from renewable energies

4 Smart charging system

Charging can be adjusted as required, monitoring the status of the batteries and the grid and maximising the use of renewable energy