

The benefits of smart meters and their impact on customers

They provide more information in near real time

Improve customer service

Improve the quality of supply

Improve network planning

Reduce downtime

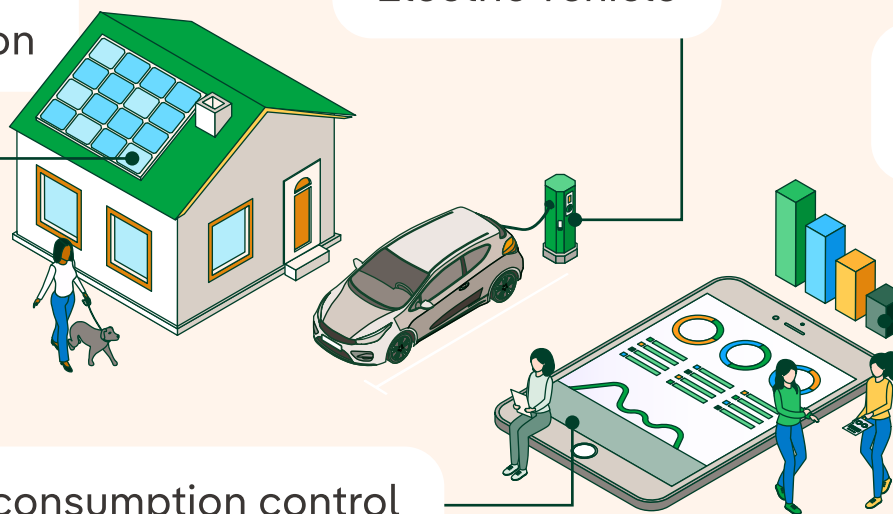

They enable new products and customers services

Photovoltaic self-consumption

Electric vehicle

Energy efficiency
New tariffs

Smart Products consumption control

These benefits are perceived by customers